AMERICAN FLAG UNFURLED OVER BRECKINRIDGE COUNTY COURT HOUSE

Commemorative Exercises Held From the Steps of the County Capitol Friday Afternoon—Raising of the Flag by Miss Mary Herndon.

PATRIOTIC ADDRESSES AND MUSIC

Three hundred townspeople and county citizens assembled at Hardinsburg Friday to commemorate Flag Day, which has been generally celebrated in America during the last four weeks. The ceremonies took place at the court house where appropriate addresses were delivered and patriotic music was rendered. The afternoon was ideal and the air was filled with patriotism and honor for our nation. Many homes and business houses were brilliant with red, white and blue bunting and dozens of flags fluttered here and there, expressing the spirit of the day.

The exercises were held in the court house yard in the early part of the afternoon. Judge Dowell opened the program of the celebration by introducing Miss Mary Herndon, who raised Old Glory to the top of the court house flag-pole at 2 o'clock. Miss Herndon, dressed with grace, wearing a beautiful white dress which added to the beauty of the event as the huge flag was unfurled. Her maids of honor were: Miss Jane Lightfoot, of Cloverport; Miss Eliza Piggott, of Irvington; Miss Sarah Dean Moorman, of Glen Dean; Miss Beard and Miss Mary Franklin Beard, of Hardinsburg. The Hon. D. C. Heron, who inaugurated the observance of Flag Day for Breckenridge county, and Mrs. Heron, had as their matrons of honor, Mrs. G. D. Shell-man, Mrs. Paul Compton, Mrs. D. D. Dowell, Mrs. H. M. Beard, Mrs. Luke B. Reeves and Mrs. Morris Beard.

Star Spangled Banner was sung by Miss Hannah Beard and the entire audience rose to their feet, the men lifting their hats in tribute to the song loved so well by every public spirited citizen.

The Hon. W. Sherman Ball delivered an address entitled, "The Flag," and Judge Henry DeHaven Moorman spoke of "Liberty," followed by the Hon. J. R. Eskridge speaking appropriately of "Symbols." The addresses were helpful, and a deep national sentiment went from heart to heart until every citizen had a vision beyond the fence of his own home, beyond the limits of his home town and beyond the boundary lines of Breckenridge county. The words included thoughts of all America and influenced the whole world.

Among the Old Veterans, Federal and Confederate, present were: C. H. Mattingly, J. L. Frank, Chas. Heston, Taylor Scott and Wm. Beard, 3rd Ky. Cavalry; Quinn Eskridge and W. A. Stinnett, Green River Battalion State Troops; Adjutant General D. R. Murray, 17th Ky. Cavalry; Rev. J. H. Lennon, 26th Riflemen, 2nd 58rd Ky.

Confederates—B. G. Dowell and John Moredock, 1st Ky. Cavalry; Isaac Muckenfuss, 11th South Carolina Regiment.

MRS. JACOB COWLEY

Dies at the Age of Seventy-six
Years at Her Home Thursday Night—Large Family Left.

Mrs. Jacob Cowley died of heart trouble at her home last Thursday night. She was seventy-six years of age, and was a well-known citizen. Mrs. Cowley was the mother of a large family.

The funeral was held Saturday afternoon from the Sand Hill Baptist church and the interment was in Sand Hill cemetery. The Rev. Hutchinson officiated in the services.

Mr. Cowley is left with his children as follows: Mrs. Temple Simmons, Mrs. George Ashcraft, Mrs. Noah Greenwell, Mrs. Henry Neafus, Mrs. Davis Ashcraft, Miss Margaret and Miss Nannie, the twins; Lou, Will and Henry Cowley.

Will Go to Louisville

James Bishop has sold his partnership in the machine shop of Bishop & Squires to Henry Burton, of Sample. Mr. Bishop leaves the last of July for Louisville to accept a position with the Ford Motor Co.

State Treasurer

Hon. Claude B. Terrell, candidate for the Democratic nomination for State Treasurer, made an enviable reputation as Speaker of the Kentucky House of Representatives in 1912 and 1914. He has served three terms in the Legislature, and the fact that he was elected presiding officer for two terms is proof of his high standing. Only a fair-minded clean man can repeat in this high position. Mr. Terrell is all that and more. He is a substantial, practical, able man, with a wide experience in business of various kinds, which fact will be of much service to him in dealing with the affairs of the State. He is a farmer, merchant and banker. The office of Treasurer carries with it a membership of the State Sinking Fund Commission and also of the State Board of Valuation and Assessment. These important boards have general charge of the financial affairs of the State, and they also fix the franchise values of corporations for purposes of taxation. Mr. Terrell has an intimate acquaintance with these matters, gained through his experience in the Legislature. He is above reproach in every way, sober, incorruptible and dependable. He takes his duties seriously as a State officer and works earnestly to bring about the greatest good to the largest number of citizens.

In Eastern Kentucky Mr. Terrell is very strong. All who served with him in the General Assembly have brought back to their districts the most favorable reports of him as a gentleman and as a worthy public servant. In the Big Sandy Valley Mr. Terrell is well known by reputation and also has many personal friends, who are working for him solidly. No citizen who wants clean men in important places will make any mistake voting for Claude Terrell for State Treasurer.—Big Sandy News.

Big Celebration at Tell City

Many Cloverport people went to Tell City at the Independence Day celebration Monday. Some went by boats and others crossed to Tobsport and went in automobiles. The event was a big day for Tell City as a tremendous crowd attended.

AMOS BOARD DIES AT HARDINSBURG

Well-Known Man Taken After
Lingering Illness—Leaves
Wife and One Brother of Arizona

MASON AND A METHODIST

Amos Board, a man well-known to Hardinsburg and that community through years of efficient business service, died of tuberculosis at his home Hardinsburg Monday morning. He had been confined to his home since last October and his death was daily expected.

Mr. Board was born in Hardinsburg about forty-seven years ago. He was a man of valuable and creditable traits in his home, social and business life. For nineteen years he was salesman at the store of B. F. Beard & Company and there he gave himself unselfishly to the public. Six years ago he married Miss Eliza Squires, who is left with his only brother, Kenneth Board, of Tucson, Arizona. Mrs. Rebecca McGary, of Louisville, and Mrs. T. B. Henderson, of Webster, two aunts, complete the small family circle of Mr. Board.

The funeral arrangements will be completed as soon as Mr. Board arrives from Arizona. The services will be held in the Methodist church and will be conducted by the Masons. The interment will take place in Ivy Hill cemetery. The active pall bearers will be the men employees of B. F. Beard & Company as follows: Marvin Beard, Raymond Duvall, W. M. Kline, G. W. Evans, Herbert Hall and Thos. Ryan. The honorary pall bearers are: Herbert Beard, Dr. Evan Royalty, Paul Compton, Watson Hatcher, Dr. J. E. Kincheloe and Thos. Jolly.

Notice.

If you have lung trouble, scrofula, rheumatism or piles, come to see B. F. Saunders, headquarters at Oelke's drug store, Cloverport. Will be in Cloverport all this week.

Fine Tobacco Grower

Gus Smith, tenant on J. M. Howard's place, raised last year five acres of tobacco that weighed out 10,200 pounds. He and his wife and little son did all the work. Mr. Smith has been Mr. Howard's tenant for eight years, and during that time his crop of tobacco has never fallen under $500. Mr. Smith ranks as one of the best tobacco growers in Breckenridge county. His crop this year is good.

Whisky Production Less

Kentucky distillers who met at the Seelbach in Louisville last week agreed to curtail the production of whisky for 1916 to 33 1/2 per cent of the general average for the past five years.

$1 For New Wheat

West Point, Ky., July 2.—Messrs. Powell and Crawford, farmers of this vicinity, are the first to thresh wheat in this section and have sold the crop in Louisville at $1 a bushel. This is the earliest threshing in this section in years. All other wheat growers here will not thresh until the corn crop is laid by, as the frequent rains are making it difficult to work the corn, it is making such rapid growth. Indications are for a very fine crop.
